

Didsbury Greys Hockey club is seeking two coaches

Didsbury Greys Hockey club is seeking two coaches (one taking on Head Coach responsibilities) to develop their 1st and 2nd teams. Both with aspirations to progress, the ladies 1st XI currently play in the North Hockey league: Division 1 and the 2nd XI currently play in the Greater Manchester Hockey League: Division 1 for the 2015/16 season.

We are a friendly but ambitious club with three teams, attracting players with a wide range of abilities who all possess a love of hockey and a drive to improve whilst having fun!

The purpose of the posts is to plan and deliver a coordinated programme of high quality, professional hockey coaching sessions that are progressive and reflect the goals set out at the beginning of the season, as well as aiding the development of players. The Head coach will take on additional responsibilities which will include: leading and developing a coaching plan for the season, communicating and coordinating the coaching team from week to week and providing mentoring and guidance to the wider coaching team.

Training takes place on Wednesday evenings 7:00-9:00pm (staggered, covering three teams). Suitable candidates should be prepared to attend Ladies 1st & 2nd XI matches and liaise with other coaches in the ladies section to encourage progression through the teams
